

ELECTRICIAN

- Permanent, fulltime position.
- Work, live and play in a beautiful and vibrant area in the Northern Territory
- Relocation and support package available. Single or family.
- Competitive salary and excellent benefits on offer.
- Strong supportive team environment

Are you the Electrician we're looking for? Laynha is a well-established and reputable Indigenous organisation based in Yirrkala on the east coast of Arnhem Land (near Nhulunbuy) which provides essential services to Yolngu residents in 30 Homelands.

What will I need to succeed? You have electrical trade qualifications, A grade NT license, or the ability to obtain, experience working with indigenous people and the ability and commitment to train, support and mentor. You have worked in rural, regional and/or remote environments and willing to travel to remote areas in the NT. You have demonstrated competencies or willing to work cross-culturally. You have effective negotiation, oral and written communication skills. You demonstrate sound and mature judgement in complex and difficult environments. You are persistent, enjoy a challenge and maintain a high degree of self-motivation when the going gets tough.

$ 65k to 80k base salary range + salary sacrifice under PBI rules. Benefits include 6 weeks' annual leave with 17.5% leave loading, subsidised housing, annual remote area allowance, relocation assistance and a commitment to professional development. You may also be able to access remote area salary sacrifice arrangements including tax free holiday accommodation and meals.

Interested? You can obtain further information by contacting Mike Bollard at ops.manager@laynhapuy.com.au or telephone 08-8939 1822. A position description is available by email hr.consultant@laynhapuy.com.au

If you think you're the right person for us, we'd like to hear from you by 5pm on Monday 25 March 2019. Email your application which should include a current resume and a cover letter telling us about yourself and addressing the Selection Criteria at hr.consultant@laynhapuy.com.au