YOUTH SUPPORT WORKER

Are you the Person we're looking for?

Laynha is a well-established and reputable Indigenous organization based in Yirrkala, Northern Territory. We provide municipal and essential services, housing repairs and maintenance, health services, land management, and community services to Yolŋu residents in 30+ remote homeland communities across North-East Arnhem Land.

The Laynha Youth team forms part of the community services and is seeking a motivated and passionate individual to work as a Community Youth Support Worker. The position requires someone who is culturally competent, has a high level of personal integrity and a commitment to building the capacity of Yolŋu staff in their roles.

About the role:

The Community Youth Support Worker is responsible for supporting Community Youth Workers and Trainee Youth Workers.

This role is an identified position, part-time hours (25hrs per week, Monday to Friday). Local Yolŋu are strongly encouraged to apply.

No housing is provided and the successful person must hold a C class driver's license, current clearance for Working with Children or the capacity to obtain an Ochre Card (NT) and have basic computer skills.

Visiting Homelands and overnight stays are a feature of the position.

In exchange for your efforts:

You will enjoy the benefits of a supportive team environment, a competitive salary plus salary sacrifice under PBI rules, six weeks' annual leave (pro rata) with 17.5% annual leave loading, away-from-base and remote living allowances (pro rata).

Interested in applying?

To obtain a position description, or to discuss the role further, please contact Kevin Bird (Youth Program Coordinator) by emailing csp.mentor@laynhapuy.com.au or phone 0407 789 467. Applications are open until Friday 11th December 2020.
